- (i) illness, or risks, arising out of her pregnancy; or
 - (ii) hazards connected with that position;
- then the Employer must modify the duties of the position or alternatively transfer the Employee to a safe job at the same classification level for the period during which she is unable to continue in her present position.
- (e) If an Employee's Employer does not think it to be reasonably practicable to modify the duties of the position or transfer the Employee to a safe job;

- (e) The Employer is to give the Employee written notice of the Employer's decision on a request for extended unpaid maternity leave under subclause 41.11(a). If the request is refused, the notice is to set out the reasons for the refusal.
- (f) An Employee who believes their request for extended unpaid maternity leave under subclause 41.11 has been unreasonably refused may seek to enforce it as a minimum condition of employment and the onus will be on the Employer to demonstrate that the refusal was justified in the circumstances.

41.12. Communication during Maternity Leave

- (a) If the Employer makes a decision that will have a significant effect on the status, responsibility level, pay or location of an Employee's position whilst on maternity leave, the Employer must take all reasonable steps to give the Employee information about, and an opportunity to discuss, the effect of the decision on that position.
- (b) An Employee shall also notify the Employer of changes of address or other contact details that might affect the Employer's capacity to comply with subclause 41.12(a).

 - (iii) An Employer is to agree to a request to revert made under subclause 41.15(e)(i) unless there are grounds to refuse the request relating to the adverse effect that agreeing to the request would have on the conduct of operations or business of the Employer and those grounds would satisfy a reasonable person.

 - (ii) A requirement can be made under clause 41.15(f)(i) only if:

 - (ii) Qualifying service for any purpose under the relevant Award or this General Agreement is to be calculated according to the number of weeks of paid maternity leave that were taken at full pay or would have been had the employee not taken paid maternity leave at half pay. Employees who take paid maternity leave on half pay do not accrue award, agreement or other entitlements beyond those that would have accrued had they taken the leave at full pay.
- (b)
 - (i) Absence on unpaid maternity leave or extended unpaid maternity leave shall not break the continuity of service of Employees.
 - (ii) Where an Employee takes a period of unpaid maternity leave or extended unpaid maternity leave exceeding 14 calendar days in one continuous period, the entire period of such leave shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose under the applicable Award, agreement or industrial instrument. - 55.3. The Employer will assess each application for a 42/52 wage arrangement on its merits and give consideration to the personal circumstances of the Employee seeking the arrangement.

- 55.8. An agreement to take a reduced wage spread over the 52 weeks of the year will yield the following amounts of purchased leave.

43	9
44	8
45	7
46	6
47	5
48	4
49	3
50	2
51	1

- 55.9.
 - (a) Purchased leave is not able to be accrued. The Employee is entitled to pay in lieu of any purchased leave not taken.  - (b) Untaken purchased leave will be paid out at the rate at which it was purchased.

56.3. On completion of the fourth year, an Employee will be entitled to twelve months leave and will receive an amount equal to 80% of the wage they were otherwise entitled to in the fourth year of deferment.

56.4. Where an Employee completes four years of deferred wage service and is not required to attend duty in the following year, the period of non-attendance shall not constitute a break in service and shall count as service on a pro-rata basis for all purposes.

56.5. An Employee may withdraw from this arrangement prior to completing a four-year period by written notice. An Employee will receive a lump sum payment of wages forgone to that time but will not be entitled to equivalent absence from duty.

56.6. The Employer will ensure that superannuation arrangements and taxation effects are fully explained to the Employee by the relevant authority. The Employer will put any necessary arrangements into place.

Variation of the Arrangements

56.7. As an alternative to subclause 56.5, and only by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Employee, the provisions of the deferred arrangement may be varied subject to the following:

- (a) the term of the arrangement will not extend beyond that contemplated by this clause,
- (b) the variation will not result in any consequential monetary or related gain or loss to either the Employer or the Employee, and

- (i) In cases where Employees are studying subjects which require fortnightly classes the weekly study load should be calculated by averaging over two weeks the total fortnightly commitment.
- (j) In agencies which are operating on flexi-time, time spent attending or travelling to or from formal classes for approved courses between 8.15 a.m. and 4.30 p.m., less the usual lunch break, and for which "time off" would usually be granted, is to be counted as credit time for the purpose of calculating total hours worked per week.
- (k) Travelling time returning home after lectures or tutorials is to be calculated as the excess time taken to travel home from such classes, compared with the time usually taken to travel home from the Employee's normal place of work.
- (l) An Employee shall not be granted more than 5 hours' time off with pay per week except in exceptional circumstances where the Employer may decide otherwise.

57.4. Cadets and Trainees

- (a) Agencies are to meet the payment of higher education administrative charges for cadets and trainees who, as a condition of their employment, are required to undertake studies at a university or college of advanced education. Employees who of their own volition attend such institutions to gain higher qualifications will be responsible for the payment of fees.
- (b) This assistance does not include the cost of textbooks or Guild and Society fees.

- (c) An Employee who is required to repeat a full academic year of the course will be responsible for payment of the higher education fees for that particular year.

57.5. Approved Courses for Study Purposes

- (c) Full time study leave with pay may be approved for more than 12 months subject to a yearly review of satisfactory performance.
- (d) Where an outside award is granted and the studies to be undertaken are considered highly desirable by an Employer, financial assistance to the extent of the difference between the Employee's normal wage and the value of the award may be considered. Where no outside award is granted and where a request meets all the necessary criteria then part or full payment of wage may be approved at the discretion of the Employer.
- (e) The Employer supports recipients of coveted awards and fellowships by providing study leave with pay. Recipients normally receive as part of the award or fellowship; return airfares, payment of fees, allowance for books, accommodation or a contribution towards accommodation.
- (f) Where recipients are in receipt of a living allowance, this amount should be deducted from the Employee's wage for that period.

- (i) Where Employees travelling overseas at their own expense wish to participate in a study tour or convention whilst on tour, study leave with pay may be approved by the Employer together with some local transit and accommodation expenses providing it meets the requirements of subclause 57.6(b). Each case is to be considered on its merits.
